

Lights! Camera! Autism! is a showcase highlighting the talents of autistic adults in art, music, and film. The event will be held during Autism Acceptance Month on Saturday, April 29, 2023, at the Comic Com Museum. A VIP Reception will include our community supporters, political representatives, sponsors, and family members.

All aspects of this event are presented and supported by autistic adults including:

 The work of over 25 local autistic artists*

 Music performances by local autistic musicians*

 Film presentation by Dani Bowman, an autistic woman who owns her own film production studio and was recently featured on the Netflix series, Love on the Spectrum.*
